

Session	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue
Day 1	Lecture Theatre, Room 122 (Old Arts)	Room 156 (West Arts)	Room 256 (West Arts)	Room 456 (West Arts)	Room 204 (Old Arts)
9.00 - 9.30 Registration	Arts West Foyer
9.30 - 9.45 Welcome to Country	Lecture Theatre, Room 122, Old Arts
9.45 - 10.00 Welcome preliminaries	Lecture Theatre, Room 122, Old Arts

10 am- 11 am Opening Keynote - Professor Bina D'Costa (ANU) "From Muddy Boot to Business Class: Reframing protection through utopian imaginaries of humanity"

11.00 - 11.30 Morning Tea

11.30-1.00	Leading, managing and organising ourselves and others for development futures: critical perspectives	Gender and the politics of development	Colonial logics, decolonial possibilities and Indigenous Struggles	'In pursuit of 'better' future development outcomes in Africa"	Examining Consultants and Contractors in Aid 1
Panel/sessions: Please take 10-12 minutes for presentations, if there are five panellists; and 15 min if four panellists	Panel Convenors: Violeta Schubert (University of Melbourne), Jaco Renken (University of Manchester), Aidan Craney (La Trobe University)	Panel Chair: Joyce Wu (UNSW)	Panel Chair: Robyn Eversole (Bucknell University, USA)	Panel Convenors: Matthew Mabefam (University of Melbourne) and Franka Vaughan (University of Melbourne)	Panel Convenor: Kelly Gerard (University of Western Australia)
	Aidan Craney (La Trobe University), Kolaia Raisete (La Trobe University): Collective leadership for social change: Lessons from Pacific youth movements	Joyce Wu (UNSW): "In goes GEDSI, out goes GAD": A feminist critique of donor trends on gender and development	Robyn Eversole (Bucknell University, USA): Reimagining Inclusive Enterprise Development for the Future	Thomas McNamara (La Trobe University) These Chinese are not the Chinese of Rupiah Banda: State-Owned Enterprises, Chinese Subcontractors and the Changing Nature of Zambians' Understandings of 'The Chinese'	Emma Mawdsley (University of Cambridge): Consultants and Contractors in the UK Aid and Development Sector
	Jaco Renken (University of Manchester): Leading Digital Transformation for Development	Kazi Ashraf Uddin (UNSW): Being a Refugee and Being a Hijra: A Reflection on the Ethno-religious Category of Gender Diversity in the Context of Forced Displacement	Sarah Williams (University of Melbourne): The Possibilities of Indigenous Inquiry and Third Space Youth Development Work – Towards Decolonising Praxis	Kofi Bediako (University of Melbourne) Localising Truth Commissions in Africa, Learning from the Ghanaian and Liberian Experiences	Hendri Yulius Wijaya (University of Melbourne): The Emergence of Sustainability Reporting Consultancies: An Examination of the Indonesia Corporate Sustainability Landscape
	Denisse Rodrigues Quinonez (University of Melbourne): Leading Sustainability Transitions: What can the field of leadership for development learn from collectives as transformative forces in the Global South?	Sambath My (CERC, Federation University Australia): Are men lacking caring qualities and/or at risk of engaging child abuse in preschool education? Perceptions about male preschool teachers versus their experiences as preschool teachers in Cambodia	Honour Musuku (Deakin University): Coloniality of Development in Aotearoa's INGOs	Eyram Ivy Sedzro (University of Melbourne) Daring as women - Gender analysis of Ghanaian women's conceptualisation of risk	Lisa Denney (La Trade University): Outsourcing the impossible: has development become too hard for bureaucracies to implement?
	Natalie Cunningham (University of Manchester): Conceptualising Resilience in Development and the subsequent implications for Leadership	Wilma Langa (QUT, Brisbane): Gendered Lens on Mediation and Market Governance: Experiences of Awagasi Market Women Vendors in Papua New Guinea	Tearnaki Patiale Tanietu (University of Melbourne): Charting our Future: Locally Led Narrative in Kiribati's National Policy Formation	Moses Mensah (University of Melbourne) 'Farming is part of my life!': Rural Students' Shifting Ideas on Livelihoods, Mobilities, & Aspirations
	Violeta Schubert (University of Melbourne): The Getting of Western Wisdom: Epistemic Poetics of Leading, managing and organizing for development futures	Irine Hiraswari Gayatri (BRIN, Jakarta): Locating the Limitation of Global Norm in Shaping Gender-Sensitive National Security Policies through two national Action Plans: Indonesia's National Action Plans for Preventing Violent Extremism and the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) Agenda	Seva Sakai (UoSP, Fiji): The Lease Economy and its Contributions to Indigenous (Under) development in Fiji	Kudakwashe Praise Mutukura (RMIT): Rethinking China's impact on human security in Zimbabwe. An African Perspective
	Shirley Jenner (University of Manchester): Re-imagining the contribution of Higher Education in shaping global development leadership and community praxis.

1.00- 2.00 Lunch

Session	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue
	Lecture Theatre, Room 122 (Old Arts)	Room 156 (West Arts)	Room 256 (West Arts)	Room 456 (West Arts)	Room 204 (Old Arts)
Day 1 2:00 - 3:30 pm	Migration, Mobility and Development Futures	The State of the Sector: Australian Non-Governmental Organizations in a Fractured World (Conversation Café)	Critical Pedagogy and Development and Creative Arts	Reflecting on the 50-year anniversary of the call for a New International Economic Order and development futures	Examining Consultants and Contractors in Aid 2
Panel/sessions: Please take 10-12 minutes for presentations, if there are five panellists; and 15 min if four panellists	Panel Chair: Bina Fernandez (University of Melbourne) Discussant: Lan Anh Hoang (University of Melbourne)	Panel Chair: Samantha J Gunawardana (Monash University)	Panel Chair: Kearrin Sims (Adjunct JCU; Director of Impact, Infuse Travel)	Convenors: Matthew Mabefam (University of Melbourne) and Heloise Weber (University of Queensland)	Panel Convenor: Kelly Gerard (UWA)
	Mid Mizanur Rahman (University of Melbourne): Homogeneity and contestation in the construction of 'Rohingyas' identity and belonging and its implications for their mobility	Samanthi J Gunawardana (Monash University)	Kearrin Sims (Adjunct JCU; Director of Impact, Infuse Travel): Hopeful futures and youth education: a pedagogy of collective action	Patrick Kilby (ANU): The origins of the NIEO and its 50 Anniversary	Kelly Gerard (UWA) and Kate Thompson (UWA): Tracing Development Consultants and Contractors in Australian Aid
	Ivy Sedzro (University of Melbourne): Risk perception in a network society: the influence of migrant networks and social media on the conceptualisation of risk	Sara Niner (Monash University)	Phước Lâm Huy Trần (VinUniversity, Hanoi, Vietnam): "I admire (Church) Sisters, so I study hard": how Faith-Based NGO develops capacity to aspire to education of the Bahnar people in Vietnam *	Sam Nicholls : Strategic Imaginaries of the New International Economic Order	Annabel Dulhunty (ANU): Changing Directions in Australian Aid
	Cody Rodrigues . (University of Melbourne): Meeting at the Crossroads: Talks of Transition into Sustainable Spaces for a Displaced Vanlife Community	Raewyn Lans (ACFID)	Lesley Pruitt (University of Melbourne) and Nicola Parkes (RMIT): Youth Choreographing Peace: Dance in and beyond the Refugee Camp	Ahmad Rizky M. Umar (University of Queensland) & Farahdiba Bachtiar (Islamic State University Indonesia): Constructing 'the Global South': Indonesia, the New International Economic Order and South-South Cooperation	Lucy Pennington (ANU): Partner of Choice: Influence of Non-Government Advisers in Australian-funded Infrastructure Development Program in PNG
		Karinda Flavell (Monash University)	Deanna Borland-Sentinella (QUT, Brisbane): Embodied Futures	Matthew Mabefam (University of Melbourne): New International Economic Order @50: A reflection of the vision through the lens of Samir Amin	Sam Carroll-Bell (RMIT): All that You Can't Leave Behind: How International Development Workers in Timor-Leste Assess Local Knowledge Claims and Frameworks.

3.30 - 4pm Afternoon tea

4.00 - 5.00 pm

Closing Plenary: Jillian Rees, Director, Development Policy Section, DFAT, 'Australia's New International Development Policy – one year on'
Chair and Moderator, Kelly Gerard (UWA)

5.10 - 5.30 pm

DSAA Members meeting - All welcome